A clinical social worker in independent therapeutic practice, I specialize in treating buried issues and inhibited expression. Most of my experience deals with clients who present with depression, anxiety, trauma, sexual assault of both women and men, loss, addictions, relationship issues, character and fitness for attorneys, and unresolved grief. I counsel individuals, couples, and groups, including adolescents and adults. I also have experience lecturing on various aspects of mental and social health. I am certified and licensed by the State of Michigan, and I have earned membership into the Academy of Certified Social Workers by the National Association of Social Workers.
